

About

Mrs. Madeline Homar was born in Middletown, Connecticut she is a 3rd generation American with a Puerto Rico heritage. Her life to this point has been a miracle, born to a 16-year-old teenager. A young mother who could have aborted her, instead she chose life for her unborn child. She knew it would be difficult to raise her, so her biological mother allowed a loving couple from church to adopt her daughter. She was adopted and raised in New Britain, Connecticut. Mrs. Homar graduated from E.C. Goodwin Technical High School with a background in Cosmetology. Shortly after she graduated she traveled to Dover, Delaware, and lived there for six years.

While in Delaware, she was under the leadership of Pastor Ennio M. Zaragoza and his wife Pastor, Dr. Maribel Garcia-Zaragoza at Maranatha Life Changing Church in Dover, Delaware. During this time she was able to; cultivate her gifts and serve in their ministry.

Code Purple= This is a ministry for adults who are homeless. She would take the time to minister to them and show love and kindness. She assisted in the clothing, food, and transportation ministry.

Pamper Day= Mrs. Homar had the privilege to organize a small intimate pamper day for women and youth in the community at her church. They offered manicures, pedicures, massages, haircuts, and distributed gift bags.

Usher= who served and made sure people were welcomed as they entered their sanctuary for Sunday worship.

Worship Team= God has given Mrs. Homar an anointing gift in her voice. When she worships and sings unto God, people have been healed through her anointing and by the Holy Spirit. She was also able to help the youth at her church in the area of worship by providing encouragement and guidance so they can freely express the faith through music without fear.

In early 2022, she went back to Connecticut for a brief time then to New York. During her time in New York, she was involved, in two political campaigns; she had the privilege of meeting former Mayor Rudy Giuliani and his son Andrew Giuliani. She also got to attend a meeting at a church in NYC where current Governor Kathy Hochul was invited and honored. She had the opportunity to use and cultivate her gifts in New York as well. Led and assisted in worship at Times Square and in other churches, learned more about the apostolic gifts, and served in the Bronx communities.

January 2023, she was able to travel to Puerto Rico for a few weeks with her mother, during this time she attended an amazing anointed prayer service. She also was able to minister in the community while seeking God for clear direction for the next chapter of her life. She moved back to Connecticut with her mother and married the love of her life. She was married in March 2023 to her husband Mr. Geovanni Homar. They have started a new ministry "ECB- Elevating and Cultivating Believers" a Christian-based basketball league for men and children.

She knows how to write, read, speak, and sing in English and Spanish. She had the great honor of working with Ms. Katrina Charlene Stubbs the self-published author of “Surviving The Jungle Called Life” helped translate her memoir into Spanish. She had the free will to be creative as the Holy Spirit led her with the Spanish area of this project.

With her beautiful smile, talented hands, and voice she enjoys serving others to God’s Glory—she has an Apostolic gift. Mrs. Homar spends her time reaching out to those in need, with her husband, 6-year-old daughter Bella, and now their new addition to the family a beautiful boy, named Kairo. Her goal is to mentor women, youth, and children by providing encouragement, guidance, wisdom, with the experiences and knowledge the Lord gave her in her life’s journey and through the Holy Scriptures of Jesus. She is also an advocate for domestic violence survivors and uses her gifts and enjoys making ladies feel special and valued as well as volunteer as an outreach coordinator for BTSADV(a national non-profit organization and voice for Domestic violence). She knows what it is like when you feel worthless, undeserving, and mistreated. Mrs. Homar has a heart for all whose hearts need restoration, healing, rescue and breakthrough through the love of Jesus.
